

THE PENNSYLVANIA NATIONAL BANK,

Pottsville, Pa., March 5 1887

Hon. Stud. M. Foy
Director U. S. Mint,
Philadelphia,
Dear Sir:

Can Trade dollars be sent direct to the Mint, or must they first pass through the office of the Assistant Treasurer?

Do you understand that Standard Dollars must be taken in redemption of the trades, or will Silver Certificates be issued in lieu of coin?

If "trades" are taken at the mint, is there any regulation prescribing the manner of delivering them to you, whether they can be forwarded in bags or boxes and the limit of amount in each parcel?

Very respectfully,

Daniel L. Krebs,
Cashier

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 144

The Pennsylvania National Bank,
Pottsville, Pa.,
March 5, 1887

Hon. Danl. M. Fox
Director U.S. Mint,
Philadelphia,

Dear Sir:

Can Trade dollars be sent, direct to the Mint, or must they first pass through the office of the Assistant Treasurer?

Do you understand that Standard Dollars must be taken in redemption of the trades, or will silver certificates be issued in lieu of coin?

If "trades" are taken at the Mint, is there any regulation prescribing the manner of delivering them to you, whether they can be forwarded in bags or boxes and the limit of amount in each parcel?

Very respectfully,
Danl. L. Krebs
Cashier